Young Voices Concert at the BP Pulse Arena (25-ZYVCO)
Friday 9 January 2026 - Weather Update

Dear Parents / carers,

Following on from my email of yesterday afternoon, I am writing to confirm that Young Voices have taken the difficult decision to postpone tomorrow's concert. I do not currently know when this will be rescheduled for, but will let you know as soon as I have that information.

Any parent / audience tickets that you have purchased for the concert will remain valid for any new date which is arranged.

This means that tomorrow will be a 'normal' school day, so students should arrive in uniform and with their correct equipment.

Thank you all for your understanding.

Kind regards

Mark Warner
Director of Music
